

1.

To avoid overspending, it's good to know how much cost a product. A 2 L bottle of water costs 6 euros, a 0.5 L bottle costs 2 euros, and a 0.4 l bottle costs 1 euro and 80 cents.

a. What choice would you make if you needed 2 liters of water?

Why?

b. Which choice would you make if you needed 1.5 liters of water? Explain.

c. Imagine you are going to the park with three other friends. What choice do you make? Why?

2.

Mircea would pay a higher price for a ticket to a rock band concert, while his colleague, John, who is not passionate about music, would not pay anything.

a. Who assigns a greater value to money relative to concert ticket: Mircea or Ioan?

b. Present a situation where you assign a lower value money in relation to a good or service

