

- 1 The consumption of ice cream and soft drinks increases/decreases in the cold season.
- 2 As consumer income increases, consumption of goods and services increases/decreases.
- 3 Consumer preferences in the field of clothing change quite frequently/very rarely, depending on the latest trends in fashion.
- 4 Tobacco sales will decrease/increase if consumers are properly informed about the dangers of smoking.
- 5 The demand for children's toys and clothes will be higher/lower as the birth rate increases.
- 6 Consumption of "organic" foods will increase/decrease if the price of these foods decreases.
- 7 The product you buy must be:
  - a. of quality; b. cheap; c. as described.
- 8 If the purchased product does not correspond to the description, you have the right:
  - a. to return it; b. repair it yourself; c. to buy another one.
9. When purchasing a product, you must receive:
  - a. a bag for transport; b. a complaint form; c. tax receipt or tax invoice.
- 10 A consumer dissatisfied with the quality of a product/service can make a complaint to: a. The County Police Inspectorate; b. County Commissariat for Consumer Protection; c. Local Police.