

WORKSHEET

The war on terror

"The war on terrorism is a new, different notion. Now we are faced with some people who resort to unimaginable techniques [...]. I think we will have to think differently and act differently. The means by which we have been endowed so far are no longer useful in counteracting these particularly dangerous threats and actions of the future. "

Ex - NATO Secretary General George Robertson,
Declarations on the War on Terror

1Mention, on the basis of the text, a reason for starting the war on terrorism.

2Do you think this war is necessary? Argue.
